

Remembrance Day Service

Once again, the SJP Brass Band were invited to lead the Remembrance Day service in Hamilton Square.

SJP players turned out in band uniform to stand alongside British Legion servicemen, Armed Forces and Sea Cadets to remember the fallen soldiers.

A large crowd gathered to pay their respects to the soldiers and held a minute's silence, after which Mr Austin led the traditional bugle call of the Last Post, sounding a somber and memorable note to all present.

The SJP Brass Band then marched through the streets, playing alongside military personnel, and were congratulated by all present on their performances and the way they carried themselves.

We are very proud of our SJP Brass Band being part of this very important service and we will continue to support the British Legion in the future.

FOUL FACTS

Did you know that in Victorian schools there were often as many as 70 or 80 pupils in one class!

Boys' lessons included farm work, shoemaking and gardening!

The human stomach can hold up to 7 pints of food

It takes your stomach just 60 minutes to digest a cup of tea and a jam sandwich!

BOOK OF THE WEEK

OATH BREAKER is book 5 in the superb Chronicles of Ancient Darkness series. Michelle Paver brings to life a world of 6,000 years ago with fascinating descriptions of the food, the weapons and the medicines that forest dwellers might have used at this time.

Here Comes Christmas - Book Stall

At this year's "Here Comes Christmas" event, we want to have a bigger and better Book Stall.

To make this happen, we will need a HUGE amount of books, which means the perfect opportunity for you to de-clutter bookshelves, bedrooms, boxes in the attic, etc and donate all your unwanted books to our Book Stall.

Please bring in your 'bags brimming with books' and leave them at the College Reception.

Years 9 & 10—Review Day

Please be aware that Review Day for Years 9 & 10 will take place this Friday 20th November 2009.

The College will therefore be closed for the pupils in Year 7, 8, 11 & Sixth Form on that day.

Theme for the Week - "Hope"

If you want a career in nursing or engineering, catering or whatever you have a goal or target to aim for; what you hope to achieve in the future decides how you act now. This is hope week for Christians. All Christians hope one day that they will meet Christ in heaven when they die.

How we act now will decide if the goal or target is achieved. Hope is not enough; it has to inspire action now.

Mark 13:24-32

"During the days after this trouble comes, the sun will grow dark, and the moon will not give its light.

The stars will fall from the sky.

And the powers of the heavens will be shaken.' — Isaiah 13:10; 34:4

"Then people will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. Then he will send his angels all around the earth to gather his chosen people from every part of the earth and from every part of heaven.

"Learn a lesson from the fig tree: When its branches become green and soft and new leaves appear, you know summer is near. In the same way, when you see these things happening, you will know that the time is near, ready to come.

I tell you the truth, all these things will happen while the people of this time are still living. Earth and sky will be destroyed, but the words I have said will never be destroyed.

"No one knows when that day or time will be, not the angels in heaven, not even the Son. Only the Father knows.

Father in heaven you promised us salvation and future happiness through the final coming of your Son Jesus.

Help us to make our hope real by living as Jesus asked and showed us by his care for others.
