

Manufacturing Competition

Last week eight Year 9 students took part in a manufacturing competition run by the Manufacturing Institute. Their role is to promote the manufacturing sector in Great Britain. Each team consisted of eight students and each member was given a specific task. These tasks mirrored the roles of a real design team and had job titles such as Managing Director, Design Engineer and Quality Control Manager to name but a few. This particular competition was sponsored by Survitech who make emergency survival equipment. The students had to design a Survival Pod which could be transported and used in the case of a disaster. They were judged on their designs, teamwork, ability to keep to deadlines and also on the quality of their presentation at the end of the day to the panel of dragons, as in Dragons Den. The team gave a very confident pitch in front of the Dragons and came second out of twelve competing schools. This was good enough to get through to the regional finals next June. This is the first time a team from SJP have reached this stage of the competition, so congratulations to all involved.

SJP Becomes an Academy

We are delighted to announce that, this December, SJP becomes an academy. Following on from our earlier consultation, you will know that we believe that academy status will allow us to strengthen our current provision. We will not be changing the name of the school or the uniform or, most importantly, the ethos and high standards you have come to expect. SJP prides itself on preparing young people for life and we are more committed than ever to nurturing individual talents and aspirations as well as stimulating and developing a passion for learning which will last a lifetime. Acquiring academy status is part of our on-going journey of continued success, working in partnership with families, other schools, our local parishes and our wider Diocesan community.

As a Catholic school, academy status could only be granted with the permission of Bishop Mark and we are the first Diocesan school in the North West to be granted such status. We are grateful to the Bishop and his Trustees for this permission and look forward to this exciting next phase in the continuing story of SJP.

Geography News

PC Rose Wise has been visiting Year 8 pupils in Geography this week to help them with their study of the 'Geography of Crime'. She talked about the work our police offices do and she enthralled us with some of her personal stories; in one story Rose recalled an encounter where "He flew at us like something out of Twilight!" Pupils enthusiastically asked Rose a whole variety of inquisitive and meaningful questions. We may even have some future PC's among Year 8.

On Tuesday 27th November and Wednesday 28th November, Year 11 Geography pupils completed a fieldwork investigation in New Ferry and Bebington. Prepared with clipboards and a waterproof coat, pupils were conducting questionnaires, pedestrian counts and shop use surveys.

The pupils were investigating the range of facilities at both locations and how popular they were with shoppers. The data collected and skills learnt will now be used for their controlled assessment and summer examination. Pupils showed great enthusiasm and were a credit to St John Plessington Catholic College. People from the local community complemented pupils on how respectful and well-mannered they were.

Why Advent?

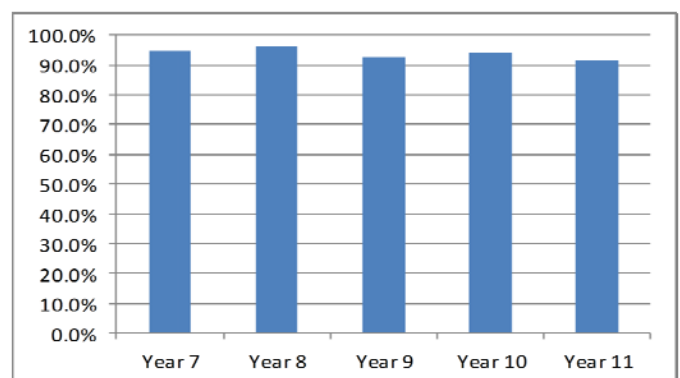

The countdown to Christmas seems to start earlier and earlier each year, as soon as the summer is over the shops start preparing for Christmas. When did you see the first Christmas decorations in the shops?

But it's not until these days of December that the real build up to Christmas begins with the season of Advent. This special time of year helps us to focus on the true meaning of Christmas and the real reason why we celebrate with such enthusiasm on 25th December. Advent asks us to wait and slow down and to be still, so that we can prepare peacefully, gently and prayerfully for the birth of Jesus. Over the next three weeks our daily prayer invites us to think about who we are waiting for. In the Old Testament the prophets about the promises, looking forward to the future anticipating the hope and salvation God would bring to the world. In the New Testament, the arrival of Jesus puts flesh and blood on the promise and Jesus' presence in the world is shown fully.

Each day in advent we will take one of the images, titles or phrases given to describe Jesus and think about how his life makes a difference to us and enables us to bring about change in our world today.

Weekly Theme - 'Freedom'

Luke 21:25-28

There will be signs in the sun, moon and stars. On the earth, nations will be in anguish and perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea. People will faint from terror, apprehensive of what is coming on the world, for the heavenly bodies will be shaken. At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."

To be free, is what we all want. To be loved. That too!" These are the two greatest human values. Doing what I want all the time, getting my own way, however, is not real freedom, just as real love is not self centred.

Only Jesus can give us real freedom by following his words – "love one another"- and his example of unselfish caring.

Advent is the season when we think about just how 'free' and 'loving' we really are.

Father in heaven,

In these days of Advent, help us to look forward to the birth of your son, Jesus.

Give us your freedom so that we think less about ourselves and more about others.

Amen
