

St John Plessington Catholic College

Thought for the week
Week Commencing 15th October 2018

“Listen to advice and accept instruction, that you may gain wisdom in the future.”

Proverbs 19:20

Pope Francis tells us:

The one who listens attentively to the Word of God and truly prays, always asks the Lord: what is your will for me?

St John Plessington Catholic College

Liturgical Theme for the week Week Commencing 15th October 2018 “The word of God”

The aim of this weeks them is to encourage our students to think about just how we hear the voice of God in our world today and how the word of God helps us to live our lives.

So how do we know how god wants us to live? How do we hear God speaking to us today? Do you know which book beats all records for the number of copies sold and the number of languages it has been translated into? The answer to these questions is the Bible. It is the most widely read book in the world appearing in over 1500 languages. For millions of people in our world who read the bible and try to live their lives by it, the bible is the word of God speaking to them for the time in which they live.

Monday 15th October 2018

Hebrews 4:12-13

For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart. Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account.

Father, the hand of your loving kindness powerfully but gently guides all the moments of our day.

Give us the gift of that same loving kindness, that we may treat everyone with love and respect, today and everyday.

Amen.

St John Plessington

Pray for us,