Dear Parent/Carer

Pastoral Changes

As we near the end of the Academic Year, I write to inform you of some changes in key personnel for your son/daughter's pastoral team. I am sure you will agree that the Pastoral systems and structures in place at SJP are second to none, providing outstanding core support and guidance to all students.

With this in mind, we have looked carefully at the Head of Learning and Learning Coach roles across the college. To aid continuity and to provide a real knowledge and understanding of our students, we have ensured that either current Head of Learning or Learning Coach has remained in place. Other key staff have been put in place, based on their expertise and experience, to provide enhanced support and guidance throughout the next academic year.

These changes will be effective from this week, to allow staff a handover period and to get to know their new year groups pre-September.
