

'Les Misérables'

Last Wednesday, a group of students travelled to London's West End for a vocal workshop led by a West End professional. After some ice breaking games and warm ups, including the Malteser challenge, they sang 'At the End of the Day' from the hit musical 'Les Misérables'.

Our students received much praise from the professionals, who said that they 'produce an amazing sound'. After their outstanding performance, they visited the Queen's Theatre for the matinee performance of 'Les Misérables'. Katie Howard, Year 13, said that "the stage performance was even better than the film!" Every student gained invaluable experience and they were truly inspired by the workshop and performance. It was a fantastic day and one that won't be forgotten.

SJP's PE Extra Curriculum programme started last week with hundreds of keen sports pupils participating in clubs and fixtures during both academic review and after school. After Year 7 football trials on Monday night the team played their debut match against Bebington High School, narrowly being beaten 6-4. Also, Rugby, Dance, Netball, Basketball, Cross country, Trampolining and Tag Rugby clubs began and the field, yard and sports hall were a 'hive of activity' with our pupils enjoying sport. A special mention must be given to all the Year 11 GCSE dance candidates who have been involved in moderation all week. Well done to everyone and we look forward to seeing you all again next week.

ue league. The first match was against a very strong Hilbre team who had a number of club players in their squad. The second against an equally strong Mosslands. Unfortunately SJP didn't manage to win either match but the scores did not reflect the effort and quality of the rugby being played by SJP. There were strong performances from Joe Shields, Callum Eakins and Joe Clague amongst others.

Football News

The Year 9 Football Team opened their season with a stunning 7-1 victory over South Wirral High School. Our Year 9 boys showed flare and class as they comfortably blew away the opposition. The performance of all players was outstanding, and Leon Dettlauff just tipped everyone to claim 'Man of the Match'.

St Vincent de Paul

On Friday 27th September we celebrate the Feast Day of St Vincent de Paul, who is one of our College House Patrons.

Vincent lived in France over three hundred years ago when there were many cruel and unjust practices taking place. Vincent was a model of generosity, although a priest, he offered to take the place of galley slaves who had to row large boats and took the poor into his home. His work continues today through the Sisters of Charity and the Society of St Vincent de Paul found in many parishes. Did you know that we have a Junior SVP group running in our College? If you would like to know more about the work we do please talk to Gerard or Miss Sandland-Jones .

Happy Feast Day to all in St Vincent de Paul House.

Weekly Theme - 'On the side of the poor'

Luke 16:1-13

Jesus also said to His followers, "Once there was a rich man who had a manager to take care of his business. This manager was accused of cheating him. So he called the manager in and said to him, 'What is this I hear about you? Give me a report of what you have done with my money, because you can't be my manager any longer.' The manager thought to himself 'What will I do since my master is taking my job away from me? I am not strong enough to dig ditches, and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I'll do so that when I lose my job people will welcome me into their homes.' So the manager called in everyone who owed the master any money. He asked the first one, "How much do you owe?" He answered, "Eight hundred gallons of olive oil." The manager said to him, "Take your bill, sit down quickly, and write four hundred gallons." Then the manager asked another one, "How much do you owe?" He answered, "One thousand bushels of wheat." Then the manager said to him, "Take your bill and write eight hundred bushels." So, the master praised the dishonest manager for being clever. Yes, worldly people are more clever with their own kind than spiritual people are. I tell you, make friends for yourselves using worldly riches so that when those riches are gone, you will be welcomed in those homes that continue forever. Whoever can be trusted not be trusted with worldly riches, then who will trust you with true riches? And if you cannot be trusted with things that belong to someone else, who will give you things of your own?

No servant can serve two masters. The servant will hate one master and love the other, or will follow one master and refuse to follow the other. You cannot serve both God and worldly riches.

It certainly is sad how some people can be so dishonest. Their one and only concern is making as much money as possible, without caring if their methods are just or unjust, moral or immoral. Certainly, all of us have had to deal with people who have done their best to cheat us. We didn't realise this at the time, because we took it for granted that the person was sincere. We ask ourselves, how can that person live with him or herself? The answer is, quite easily because he or she doesn't care about anyone other than themselves. Jesus said at the end of today's Gospel, You cannot serve two masters, you will hate one and be devoted to the other or vice-versa.
