Have you ever considered a career in teaching?

School Direct is a one-year, full time teacher training programme. At SJP, all School Direct trainees are allocated a dedicated subject mentor, and guided by specialist tutors. At the end of the year successful trainees will qualify with QTS and PGCE, which is accredited by the University of Chester.

What are the entry requirements?

- UK university degree 2:1 or above (2:2 for Maths, Physics, Chemistry, MFL) or a recognised equivalent qualification – we also accept applications from final year students due to graduate in 2016
- Grade C or above in GCSE English and Mathematics and Science for Primary
- At least two full days' school observation
- You will be required to undergo an enhanced DBS check to verify your suitability to work with young people

What subjects do we offer?

We currently offer teacher training for Biology, Business Studies, Chemistry, Computer Science, DT, Drama, English, Geography, History, Maths, Media, Modern Foreign Languages, PE, Physics, Primary, RE and Social Sciences.

In addition, our School Experience Programme offers the opportunity to spend a day or two at SJP in your subject department. You will be able to observe classes taking place, engage with pupils, and speak to subject staff and the School Direct trainees who are currently training with us.

If you would like to know more about School Direct or our School Experience Programme please contact Helen Ruscoe, Teaching School and Marketing Manager, helenruscoe@stjohnplessington.com, or 0151 645 5049.

WEEKLY THEME “LOOKING FORWARD”

Luke 24:46-53 46

He told them, “This is what is written: The Messiah will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, and repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. I am going to send you what my Father has promised; but stay in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.”

When he had led them out to the vicinity of Bethany, he lifted up his hands and blessed them. While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken up into heaven. Then they worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy. And they stayed continually at the temple, praising God.

Luke 24:46-53 46

Jesus leaves the disciples and returns to be with God. But instead of being downhearted, or feeling abandoned, the disciples are filled with joy and are moved to praise God.

Jesus opens the disciples' minds to the Scriptures and gives them a purpose. They are to be witnesses to his word. They know what it is they are supposed to do, and they've spent three years watching Jesus show them how to do it. Through his ministry and care for those who are poor, sick, marginalised and excluded, Jesus gives us all an example of how to live.

In this Year of Faith we are reminded that we are also called to know and understand what it is we profess to believe. And we are called to be witnesses to our faith in all that we do.

This is not an obligation that is meant to weigh us down, or fill us with anxiety and dread. Rather we can be filled with joy that we have the opportunity to share the hope that God gives with others. By living out our faith in our actions, by reaching out in compassion and solidarity with others around the world, we can share Christ's message of love for all.

Christ Jesus, you are with us always. Help us to be witnesses to your word and to your love for those people who are poor or excluded in any way, so that by our actions all may know that we are your disciples.
Amen.
