

St John Plessington
Catholic College

Thought for the week
Week Commencing 17th June 2019

“Integrity is telling myself the truth.
And honesty is telling the truth to other people.”

Spencer Johnson

Pope Francis tells us:

“Where there are lies, there can be no love.”

Aspire
not to have more
but to be more...

Artistic License

St John Plessington Catholic College

Liturgical Theme for the week Week Commencing 17th June 2019 “Telling the Truth”

Christians are called not only to refrain from telling lies, but to conduct their entire lives - both words and actions - as a witness to the truth that is Jesus.

As children of God, people are given this same access to truth, sent through the Holy Spirit, “who is the Spirit of truth, who tells our hearts that God is our Father.”

In every one of his actions man accepts or denies this truth. From small everyday situations to the most demanding choices. But it is the same logic: that our parents and grandparents teach us when they tell us not to lie.

Aspire
not to have more
but to be more...