“You need a really solid foundation of friends and family to keep you where you need to be.

Pope Francis tells us:

“Situations can change; people can change. Be the first to seek to bring good. Do not grow accustomed to evil, but defeat it with good.”

Liturgical Theme for the week Week Commencing 1st July 2019 “Building on firm foundations”

Who would you choose to spread the good news of the Kingdom Of God?
Would it be a simple fisherman or a man who persecuted Christian's?

Or would it be somebody with more experience? Somebody who shared your views and your vision?

Jesus chose the two least likely people. He chose and trusted them. This week we celebrate the feast day of Saints Peter and Paul who Jesus chose to be the foundations stones on which he built his church.

Who is Jesus calling you to be today?

Monday 1st July 2019

Matthew 16:13-19

Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” And they said, “Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.” He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.” And Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the underworld will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.”
